In HIS Name HR has joined with Christian HR experts and leaders to initiate a dynamic new community designed to nurture and support Christian HR professionals via monthly forums. These forums promote an engaging and informative exchange of ideas and advice in a private, non-judgmental environment, and encourage members to apply Christian practices in their dealings with customers, employees, customers and vendors.

The primary goal of this initiative is to enable Christian HR professionals to achieve a successful and satisfying life, offering an opportunity to regroup at its monthly forums and learn how to identify and balance their organizational, career, personal and spiritual goals.

Each session is held in a confidential setting, facilitated by a seasoned Christian HR professional. The forums are run with a Biblical approach, and include prayer devotions and fellowship over lunch before each session.

Topics range from how to successfully develop high-performance recruitment systems, implement high-performance employee review programs, employee relations and development, and how to tackle these and other issues as a Christian leader, and are covered in depth through training-based open discussions.
